Dear [redacted]

[redacted] has informed me of the important and extremely generous help you have given to one of this Agency's deaf employees this past August.

As you know, we are making a sincere and dedicated effort to provide support and counseling for employees who suffer from alcoholism, as well as ensuring them access to inpatient treatment programs when that is appropriate. Sometimes, as in this case, in-house capabilities prove inadequate. Your donation of over twenty hours of sign interpreting services, for which you refused compensation, ensured that this individual received the care he needed when he needed it. Such dedication to others is indeed rare.

Please accept my personal thanks and my best wishes for all success in the coming year.

Yours sincerely,
